A Professional development resource to support learners with learning and emotional difficulties

This resource is designed to support educators to restore and renew a sense of wellbeing for children and young people with learning and emotional difficulties and differences.

Educators will find that the blend of information and activities for professional development and the classroom will help them to develop a deeper understanding of the needs of these learners, and how to go about creating more positive and inclusive environments.

The information brought together in this resource is exciting, inspiring and empowering for educators of any age range in any school.
